CLOSER INSIGHT HIGH STANDARD IN RURAL SCHOOL

PRESENT REVENUE HELD INADEQUATE

Ohio Teachers Urge Repeal of Limitation in Tax Law.

WOULD RAISE BIG STATE FUND

Levy of One Mill on All Property in the State Suggested in Resolution Adopted by the State School Improvement Federation — Derthick Again Honored—Sandles Seeks an Explanation.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28. — Repeal of the tax limitation in the Smith 1 per cent law was urged in resolutions adopted by the Ohio School Improvement Federation. The local tax levy in any school district for all school purposes in any year, under the present law, can not exceed 5 mills on the dollar of valuation of taxable property. This, school men declare, is insufficient.

Another resolution approved a levy of 1 mill upon all the property of Ohio to constitute a state educational fund, to be divided between common schools and state institutions of learning. Of this amount 79 per cent is to go to the common schools and 21 per cent to state schools. Such distribution, it is said, will give $4 to each enumerated youth in Ohio.

Standard of Teachers.
In order to raise the professional standard of teachers, the federation recommended by resolution that teaching experience and professional training be required of applicants for school certificates. The plan provides for raising the standard each year until 1915, when no applicant is to be accepted who has not had at least a year of teaching experience or a year of professional training.

Closer inspection and standardization of rural schools was urged in another resolution adopted by the federation.

For the fourth consecutive time F.
A. Derthick of Mantua was elected president of the federation. Other officers chosen were: S. A. Harbort of Cleveland, John Davidson of Lima and Bert M. Thompson of Byesville, vice presidents; W. N. Beetham, Bucyrus, secretary; Professor J. H. Dickason, Wooster, treasurer; S. K. Mardis, Columbus, chairman executive committee.

Sandles' Query.
Calling attention to the fact that Ohio has increased its school expense 100 per cent during the last 10 years, while school enumeration has increased only 6,000 and the total population 600,000, and asking pointed questions as to whether the state is not spending too much money for trills and not enough on the grades, where the many are compelled to get their education, A. P. Sandles, secretary of the state board of agriculture, has called upon schoolsuperintendents for their respective explanations. In his letter he asks for suggestions looking towards a remedy.

"Decline of rural life is beginning to show at the vitals of agriculture," Mr.
Sandles says. According to Mr. Sandles $13,000,000 was spent on schools in 1901 and $26,000,000 in 1911.

Wilson's Philippine Policy.
Staunton, Va., Dec. 28.—President Wilson favors a provisional government for the Philippines for eight years and independence thereafter, according to Representative William A.
Jones of Virginia, chairman of the House insular affairs committee, who discussed the Philippines situation with him on the train.

Steamer Sinks in Collision.
Montevideo, Dec. 28.—The German steamer Amasis and the British steamer Austrian Prince were in collision in the harbor here. The Austrian was so badly damaged that she sank. So far as is known no lives were lost.

HOPES MIGHT FAIL AT THAT

MAY START TROUBLE AFTER MARCH FOURTH

Castro's Coming Held An Indication of Rebel Activity.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The boldness of Cipriano Castro in taking passage for the United States on board the La Touraine, due in New York the first of next week, is interpreted in both official and unofficial quarters in Washington as an indication of the expectation of revolutionists of Latin America that President Wilson's inauguration will bring in an era of tolerance.

Hardly a day passes now but what Washington hears fresh reports of the determination of certain elements in Central America and the Caribbean to start trouble immediately after the 4th of March.

While the state department is confident that the mere application of the immigration laws will be sufficient to prevent Castro from setting up his residence in the United States, nevertheless it is known to the department that there has been for many months considerable activity among the Venezuelan colony in New York city. The department does not fear any serious trouble from this activity.
The present Venezuelan government has apparently so firmly established itself that Venezuela is believed safe from revolutionary activity.

Man Shoots His Wife.
Springfield, O., Dec. 28.—After kicking in the front door of the home of his wife, Mrs. Emma Powell of South Scion, a village near here, Irvin Powell shot her three times with a revolver, all the shots taking effect. Doctors say she will not live. Powell escaped.

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT STRONGLY ADVOCATES

CHANCE FOR BEGINNERS

COMPLETE CHANGE IN BUSINESS METHODS

SEES PEACEFUL REVOLUTION

Society Ready For Reconstruction, Says Governor Wilson.

CHANGES MUST BE MADE IN LAW

President-Elect Finds Economic Conditions Radically Changed in Twenty Years and Says Old Formulas
Do Not Fit—Laws Regarding Relations of Employers and Employed Pronounced Impossible.

New York Dec. 28.—Woodrow Wilson says he would like to take a census of business men as to whether they think the organization of business in this country is satisfactory or not. He believes that, "if they could vote secretly they would vote overwhelmingly that it was meant to shut out beginners, to prevent new entries in the race, to prevent the building up of competitive enterprises that would interfere with the great monopolies which the great trusts have built up."

Above everything else, he says, the country needs "a body of laws which will look after the men who are on the make rather than the men who are already made; because the men who are already made are not going to live indefinitely and they are not always kind enough to leave sons as able and honest as they are."

These sentences are from "The New Freedom—A Call for the Emancipation of the Generous Energies of a People," the first of a series of articles which the president-elect has written for the World's Work, diagnosing American ills and setting forth his political creed and purposes. He says that our government has been for the past few years under the control "of heads of great allied corporations with special interests." As a result "there have grown up vicious systems and schemes of governmental favoritism (the most obvious being the extravagant tariff), far-reaching in effect upon the whole fabric of life, touching to his injury every inhabitant of the land, laying unfair and impossible handicaps upon competitors, imposing taxes in every direction, stifling everywhere the free spirit of American enterprise."

He feels that this has come about naturally and "that it is no use denouncing anybody or anything except human nature." "A conscienceless man with an eloquent tongue could put this whole country into flame," Governor Wilson says.

Society, Governor Wilson thinks, is ready for radical reconstruction,
"which only frank and honest counsels and the forces of generous co-operation can hold back from becoming a revolution."

He says that revolution will come peacefully, "as it came when we put aside the crude government of the confederation and created the great federal union. Some radical changes must be made in law and practice, calmly and soberly."

The president-elect finds that our economic conditions have changed absolutely in 20 years and the old formulas do not fit. Laws regarding the relations of employers and employed, for instance, "are in many respects wholly antiquated and impossible."
To Governor Wilson the corporation grinders are not themselves heartless,
"but we are all caught in a great economic system which is heartless."

Marion's New Publication.
Marion, O., Dec. 28.—With the beginning of the new year the Marion Weekly Star, changed in name to the Ohio Star, will be made a periodical of general circulation, issued by the Harding Publishing company, under the editorial supervision of Warren G.
Harding. The literary editor will be Dr. James Ball Naylor and the managing editor Clarence Maris. The announcement says: "The publication promises to show that Americans have far more to crow about than to kick about." Nothing is said as to the political of the paper.

Turkish Fanatic Murderers Strung Up by Bulgarians

Photos by American Press Association.

ONE of the gruesome sides of the Balkan war was the murderous attacks of Turkish fanatics on innocent noncombatant Christians. Terrible excesses of brutality were reported from the Gallipoli district.
Swift vengeance was wreaked upon the guilty murderers wherever caught. An instance of this is here illustrated. Two fanatics were nabbed redhanded by the Bulgarians. They were quickly courtmartialed, found guilty and hanged to a tree in the village where they had committed their atrocious crimes. The upper picture shows the two slayers, with their arms bound behind their backs, listening to the death warrant. Beneath shows the pair strung up to a tree in the village of their crimes.

Declare Youth Not a Suicide.
Cleveland, O., Dec. 28.—Relatives of Barney Bernstein, the Western Reserve student who is alleged to have committed suicide at the home of his fiancee, Miss Esther Cohen, in Canonsburg, Pa., on Christmas day, will go to the Pennsylvania city to be present at the inquest. They declare that from the nature of the wound and the position of the body it would have been impossible for Bernstein to have shot himself.

NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE ANNOUNCES HIS VIEWS

COX ON LIQUOR LICENSE

State Commission of Three Suggested by His Newspaper.

Dayton, O., Dec. 28.—Insight as to the views of Governor-elect Cox relative to the liquor license code, and his plans for carrying it into effect, is thought to be available from a two-column editorial which appeared in the newspaper owned by the governor-elect.

It has been proposed that the governor name a state commission of three, who in turn will appoint a deputy license commissioner in each wet county to issue licenses.

The plan to have a state commission of three, selected by the governor, the editorial states, originated with the governor-elect. Pointing out that the people are not likely to name for governor a criminal, who would misuse the duty, or a spineless creature, unable to determine questions of right, it is argued that the appointment of the three commissioners offers the best solution yet proposed.

"Why, the size of your bill," cried the angry patient to the doctor, "makes me boil all over!"
"Ah!" said the eminent practitioner calmly. "That will be just $20 more for sterilizing your system."—Ladies

ANDREWS BITTER, HUFFMAN SUAVE

hind Penitentiary Walls.

GIVEN BEDS IN THE HOSPITAL

Ironton Statesman Declares That Owing to Public Sentiment in Franklin County the Indicted Solons
Had No Chance of Securing a Fair Trial — Huffman States He Will Take His Medicine.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—Senators Isaac E. Huffman of Oxford, O., and LaForest R. Andrews of Ironton, O., stepped briskly into the lobby at the penitentiary last night to enter upon their terms for legislative bribery.

They were given beds in the hospital ward. This means that neither will occupy a cell at night, at least for some time to come. One will receive a job as clerk in the chaplain's office and the other as clerk in the state shops, where the clothing is made.

The senators are the first members of the legislature to reach the penitentiary as a result of the bribery ex-posure in April, 1911.

The Ironton senator will be released
Aug. 11, 1913, with good time off.
Huffman will go out March 8, 1915, if he gets his good time. Rodney J. Diegle, senate sergeant-at-arms, who was convicted of being a go-between among the other legislators concerned in the bribery, will be released, under good time, May 8, 1914.

Senator Andrews was bitter in denunciation of the prosecution of legislators on graft charges. He said public sentiment is against the accused men in Franklin county and that they had no chance of securing a fair trial. He accused the prosecutor of keeping detectives on the trail of prospective jurors until he learned their attitude. He said his life was ruined, but that he did not care for his own sake. His family, he said, would have to endure the stain.

"There's nothing for me to do but to take my medicine," commented Senator Huffman, with accustomed suavity.

A PUBLIC HEARING OF LABOR'S VERSION

LABOR HAS ITS INNING

New York Board of Mediation Probing
the Textile Situation.

Little Falls, N. Y., Dec. 28. — The state board of mediation, consisting of W. C. Rogers, James McManus and P.
J. Downey, commenced a series of public hearings in the matter of the local textile strike situation.

The hearings were devoted to the presentation of the strikers' side of the controversy, the attorneys representing the Industrial Workers of the World having many witnesses on hand to testify regarding the alleged poor wages paid in the mills, the long hours of labor and the manner of living of the employees.

The investigators will listen to the statements of the mill owners when the strikers have been heard. The investigation is scheduled to require at least four days.

It is seldom that punishment, though lame of foot, has failed to overtake a villain.—Horace.

CITY'S CHRISTMAS GIFT FROM MAYOR SMITH LATE BUT ACCEPTABLE

Total Amount of Money Turned Into the City Treasury Was $521.55 in Full of Fines and Licenses.

COUNTY IS ALSO REMEMBERED

When Mayor Uses the County Auditor's "Pay in Order" Calling for $302.60 for Fines Collected in State Cases and Board of Prisoners--Settlement Made With City on the Figures of Examiner.

The city of Washington is $521.55 better off financially since about four o'clock on Friday evening.

The Fayette county treasury is $302.60 stronger on the right side of the ledger since Friday afternoon.

This pleasant condition of affairs is brought about by the fact that Mayor Harvey W. Smith paid into the hands of City Treasurer William Deeweese the first mentioned sum, and into the county treasury the last mentioned sum. The amount paid into the city treasury represented the fines and licenses collected by the mayor as shown by his books and his reports to council, under the city ordinances, and the sum paid into the county treasury represented the amount of fines collected in "state cases"—cases in which offenders were convicted in the Mayor's court of violating the laws of the state and for board of prisoners.

Mr. C. E. Lippincott of the State Bureau of Accounting and Inspection arrived in this city Thursday morning and commenced work in the mayor's office. He confined his work while in the city to the examination of the affairs of that office, and Friday afternoon Examiner Lippincott and Mayor Smith called at the office of City Auditor Pine and upon the statement of the amount due to the city from the mayor, presented by the state examiner the city auditor issued a pay in order to Mayor Smith and the two left the office together. The mayor then went to City Treasurer William Deeweese and paid over to the city treasurer the amount stated in the pay-in order, $521.55.

Earlier in the afternoon, Mayor Smith called at the office of County Auditor Henkle and obtained a pay-in order from that official for $302.60 which was labeled, "Fines and board collected up to December 25th" and this amount the mayor paid in at once to the county treasury.

City Auditor Pine states that this is the first sum paid into the city treasury by Mayor Smith since October 10th, when he paid in $64.79 for the month of June.

The county auditor says that sum paid in to the county treasury on last Friday, is the first payment made to the county since last August.

The laws of Ohio, Section 4270, provides that "All fines and forfeitures collected by the mayor, or which in any manner comes into his hands, and all moneys received by him in his official capacity, other than his fees of office, shall be by him paid into the treasury of the corporation weekly. At the first regular meeting of the council in each and every month, he shall submit a full statement of all such moneys received, from whom paid, and for what purpose received, and when paid over. All fines, penalties and forfeitures collected by him in state cases shall be by him paid over to the county treasurer monthly."

City Auditor Pine asserts that he has been greatly handicapped for lack of money in the proper funds to meet the salaries of the city officials and the sum paid in on Friday will relieve the pressure considerably.

Examiner Lippincott left the city Friday evening, stating only that he had concluded his work here and that the public would not be long delayed in receiving his report.

While the accumulated payments are delayed considerably the city auditor expresses himself that they are none the less welcome.

Auditor Pine had made other arrangements of a temporary nature in order to enable him to present the city employees and officials with the usual holiday salary check, so that the old custom was not broken.

Would-be Burglar Frightened Away

About 1:30 o'clock Friday morning, a man, evidently intent on burglarizing the residence of Mrs. Lydia Porter, of West Paint street, was frightened away after he had cut the screen and raised the window.

Bennie Jones and Howard Porter, according to Jones, were sitting in a room talking when they heard a noise and upon making an investigation, discovered the attempted burglar, and also saw the man running from the premises.

F. E. Eichelberger a Close Third While Others Make Splendid Winnings in the Greatest Corn Exhibit Ever Held in County.
Five Big Days Come to a Close Friday Evening.

The Seventh and greatest annual corn show held in Jeffersonville, came to an end Friday, and the Agricultural Extension school also closed Friday evening after a most successful five days' session during which time some 150 persons received instruction which will prove valuable in a great many ways.

George Livingston, of the O. S. U., assisted by others, was judge of the big display of corn, finishing up his work late Thursday evening.

In the Agricultural Extension school, W. H. Palmer, W. J. Hendryx and Walter McCoy were the instructors for the men's classes, and in the Domestic Science or Home Makers' course, Miss Josephine Matthews and Miss Catherine Creamer, of Columbus, had charge of the lectures and gave demonstrations that were helpful in the work.

The two classes were composed of 75 men and 50 women, and it was one of the best schools ever held in central Ohio, and every one manifested deep interest from the start and assisted in making every session full of interest to the others.

The enthusiasm displayed in the contest for exhibiting the best corn was greater than ever, and in the show was made up of 177 entries of the highest grade corn ever exhibited in a Jeffersonville corn show, and equal to that grown anywhere. All of the officers of the show worked hard to make it a success, and much credit belongs to them for arousing the great interest manifested.

H. W. Bussert, who has made so many winnings wherever his corn has been displayed, carried off four firsts and won sweepstakes. F. E. Eichelberger was close behind with three firsts.

The winners in the various classes are as follows:

Class A, 10 ears yellow, open to all, 29 entries—1st, H. W. Bussert, South Solon; 2nd, J. W. Bland, Bloomington; 3rd, Oscar Glass, Jamestown; 4th, Bruce Baughn, South Solon.

Class B, 10 ears white, open to all, 13 entries—1st, F. E. Eichelberger, Jeffersonville; 2nd, F. W. Cline, Bloomington; 3rd, Bert Judy, Bloomington; 4th, Samuel Allen, Jeffersonville.

Class C, ten ears mixed, 6 entries—1st, F. E. Eichelberger; 2nd, E. A. Eichelberger, East Monroe; 3rd, Aerman Paullin, Sedalia; 4th, Eichelberger and Couch.

Class D, single ear, 44 entries—1st, H. W. Bussert; 2nd R. G. Allen, South Solon; 3rd, A. D. Vannorsdall, Jefferson; 4th, D. H. Wissler, Bloomington.

Class E, one bushel, open to all, 17 entries—1st, Bert Judy Bloomington; 2nd, H. W. Bussert, South Solon; 3rd, F. E. Eichelberger, Jeffersonville; 4th, Roscoe Straley, Jeffersonville.

Class F, improved clavage, open to all, 13 entries—1st, H. W. Bussert; 2nd, Bruce Baughn, South Solon; 3rd, B. E. Williams, Jeffersonville; 4th, B. D. Smith, Jeffersonville.

Class G, amateur, 10 ears, open to all, 19 entries—1st, Joseph Flint, South Solon; 2nd, Willard Kirk, Jeffersonville; 3rd, Resse Dorn, Sedalia; 4th, Ray McKillip, Jeffersonville.

Class H, young men's class, 10 ears open to all, eight entries—1st, Herman Bussert, South Solon; 2nd, D. H. Judy, Bloomington; 3rd, Howard Vannorsdall, Jeffersonville; 4th, Ray McKillip, Jeffersonville.

Class I, Coit corn, 10 ears, 2 entries—1st, S. A. Yeoman and 2nd, H. F. Beatty.

Class J, open to Marshall Grange, 2 entries—Cup winners, S. & O. A. Allen, Jeffersonville; 2nd, F. E.

Eichelberger, Jeffersonville; 3rd, Albert Armstrong, Jeffersonville; 4th, E. D. Straley, Jeffersonville.

Class K, feeding and market grade 16 entries—1st, H. W. Bussert, S. Solon; 2nd, F. W. Cline, Bloomington; 3rd, H. J. Smith, Jeffersonville; 4th, Harley French, Jeffersonville.

Class L, Jefferson township, best display, three entries—1st, F. E. Eichelberger; 2nd, B. E. Williams, Jeffersonville; 3rd, H. J. Smith, Jeffersonville.

Gigantic Sign Board.

Arrangements are being made for the celebration of the anniversary of the discovery of San Francisco bay in 1769 by Portola, and for the purpose of advertising this event there has been constructed on Yerba Buena island, San Francisco bay, what is probably the largest sign ever erected. The sign, which has been cut on the sloping hills of the island, is 1,300 feet long by 1,335 feet high. The words "Portola Festival, October 19-23," are arranged in two lines, each letter of which occupies a space 45 feet by 45 feet, the outline of the letters being eight feet in width. The work was done by digging trenches eight inches in depth and filling them with lime, which shows up clear and white against the green of the hillside.

To See the Wind.

Seeing the wind is a rare but easy feat. The object wherewith it may be seen is a common saw. On any blowy day—the wind being, say, in the north—hold your saw with the ends pointing one to the east, the other to the west. Take the saw as if you were going to cut the air upward, and let the teeth, which are on top, tilt over till the flat part of the saw is at an angle of 45 degrees with the horizon. You will then see the wind. Looking along the teeth of the saw you will see the wind pour over them as plainly as you may see water pouring over a fall.

Mr. Thomas S. Callis, a prominent musician of Columbus, will accompany Mr. Oley Speaks at the song recital at Presbyterian church Monday evening. Mr. Speaks accompanies himself in the group of his own songs. Read the press notices following:

"It is a new thing to have an artist have the talent to write, as well as to sing such fine songs. His enunciation is a feature which other singers would do well to copy."—Morristown (N. J.) Record.

"Mr. Speaks is one of those singers who tells the story in each song in a simple, unaffected and impressive manner, always finding his way quickly to the hearts of his audience. He sings with a freedom born of easy tone production and with a rich melodic quality delightful to hear. Interpretatively also Mr. Speaks left nothing to be desired. His own songs elicited much applause and he was compelled to respond to several encores."—Musical Leader.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Linguist.

The charm of Mrs. Ruth McEnery Stuart's negro dialect stories was greatly enhanced when she read them herself, as she used frequently to do in the early days of her fame, for charity and church entertainments. Her imitation of the negro dialect was excellent, and her small son, who was very proud of her accomplishment in this line, frequently boasted of it among the other children. Once, when some of his school mates were vaunting the accomplishments of their several mothers, he was overheard to declare:

"Well, my mother is smarter than any of yours. She can speak two languages."

"What are they?" demanded his companions.

"White and colored."

Just for Fun.

An amusing story is told of an Irish poultry keeper. He fed a great deal of corn meal, and a surprised traveling man advised Pat to mix sawdust with the meal, insisting that the hens would not know the difference.

A few months later the traveling man again saw Pat and asked him how the new ration worked. "Fine," was the reply. "See that old yellow hen? Well, I tried her on half and half and she seemed to like it so well I changed it to all sawdust, and the last time she hatched three of the chicks had wooden legs and a fourth was a woodpecker."

An Artless Distinction.

Lewis, aged three, asked his mother what he was made of. The mother replied, "Sugar, because you are so sweet." Soon after she heard him declare to his little colored companion, "I am made of white sugar and you are made of brown sugar."—The Delineator.

Poultry and Dog Show Prospects

The business men and citizens of Washington have not yet thoroughly realized the importance of the coming poultry and dog show, which will bring hundreds of people into the city during the week it is held here.

Inquiries have been received from all of the surrounding counties and all indications point to a mammoth show, with all available space in the big armory room to be taken up.

The number of dogs to be consigned to the bench show will probably be a surprise to many, and some of the finest in Ohio will be exhibited here, including kennels from Springfield, Columbus, Cincinnati and other cities.

Saturday, 28th, will be a special day on Overcoats of all kinds. P. E. Wolford & Co., Merchant Tailor, Court street.

WHY

IN SOCIETY

Friday's Ohio State Journal announced that Rev. T. W. Locke, formerly pastor of Grace church in this city, now pastor of the Third Avenue Methodist church, and Mrs. Locke were receiving in their new parsonage, 50 West Fourth avenue, from 3 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 until 10 o'clock in the evening. Members of the Ladies' Aid Society were the assisting hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Coll delightedly entertained a number of their friends to an oyster supper, at their home four miles north of the city Friday night.

Miss Constance Ballard entertained the girls of the T. M. T. sorority Friday night at a six o'clock dinner in compliment to her guest, Miss Priscilla Wood, of Wilmington. The guests were Misses Ada Woodward, Nina Dahl, Marie Mobley, Helen Harper, Ruth Craig, Mary Tysor, Edna Fenner, Urcel Porter, Lillian Davis, Mary Weaver, Dorothy Fullerton and Geraldine Coffman.

Miss Jean Glascock entertained a gay little Christmas re-union of the Philo club girls Friday afternoon. After an hour of delightful reminiscence a dainty collation was served.

Adding to the pleasure of the re-union was the presence of three members now residing in other cities, Mrs. Sidney Johnson (nee Jane Worley) of Duncan, Okla., Mrs. John Zollinger (nee Edith Kerr), of Piqua, and Mrs. Roy Reeves (nee Helen Gest), of Columbus.

Mrs. Earl Barnett gave a beautiful little afternoon affair Friday to announce the engagement of Miss Louise Hershey, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. B. Hershey, to Mr. Wm. Henry Vail, of Niles, Ohio.

While the announcement was in the nature of a complete surprise to guests, it evoked a shower of good wishes and will be learned with much interest in society circles of Washington.

Miss Hershey has always been an exceptionally popular girl. When upon the completion of her studies at the Thomas Training school in Detroit, Mich., she accepted the position of supervisor of music at Wooster and later a similar position at Niles, her continued absence proved a source of genuine regret.

Man 86 Years Old, Far From Home and Without a Penny, Receives Aid From Humane Society in Hour of Greatest Need—Had Been Going Without Food and Sleeping in Depots, too Proud to Beg.

With the weight of 86 winters pressing hard upon him, and not able to walk without the use of a crutch and a cane, Augustus Dudley, a farmer living two miles outside of Marietta, dropped into this city Friday on his way home from Hot Springs, Arkansas, and he was penniless when he arrived here, having been compelled to walk part of the way during the past week, and being too proud to beg for food and shelter, had gone hungry and spent his nights sleeping in the depots along the road homeward bound.

When his sad condition reached the ears of members of the Humane Society he was given attention immediately, taken to the Arlington hotel to secure rest and sleep, and Saturday morning was furnished with enough money to reach home in safety.

When seen at the Arlington by a Herald reporter, the aged man expressed his embarrassment in being compelled to accept charity, and with tears in his eyes told of the kind treatment received at the hands of Human Officer Gooderl.

Miss Helen Moore, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mrs. Sarah Sollars.

Mr. F. M. Ferneau, of Bainbridge, was a business visitor here yesterday.

The Stinson Conservatory will resume work Monday after a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Simms, of Groveport, are the guests of Mrs. Eldora Stinson.

Miss Mary Weaver is visiting Miss Elizabeth Jones and the Misses Wilson in Jackson.

Miss Bertha Swope, of East Cleveland, is the holiday guest of Miss Bess Cleveland.

Miss Ruth Parrett is spending the holidays at the home of Mr. Jacob Kennell near Bloomingburg.

Mr. Henry Clark, of Bainbridge, visited his daughters, Mrs. E. M. Moore and Mrs. Joe Murphy Friday.

Miss Dora Hays was called to Cincinnati Friday night by the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. Letitia Bonham.

Miss Carrie Hershey, of Springfield, was the guest of her brother, Capt. W. B. Hershey and family, this week.

Mr. Clark Rogers returned Friday night from Danville, Ind., where he attended the funeral of Mr. Aaron Lininger.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Passmore and baby, of Cincinnati, are visiting Mr. Passmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Passmore.

Mrs. John Zollinger returned to her home in Piqua today after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Josephine Kerr.

Miss Louise Weaver left Saturday morning for Jeanette, Pa., to visit Miss Elizabeth Miller, her roommate at Wilcox college.

Miss Marion Whelpley went to Columbus Friday to spend several days visiting her uncle, Mr. E. M. Whelpley and wife.

Miss Emma Allender left this morning for Chicago to spend the remainder of the month with her sister, Mrs. Katy Vaughn.

Mr. W. A. Furry returned Saturday morning from Springfield, where he visited his brother, Dr. J. E. Furry and family over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mechlin and Mrs. S. D. Morgan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Taylor Friday, Mrs. Morgan returning to her home in Columbus today.

Mrs. Fred Wilson and daughter, Margaret, of South Solon, and Mr. Maurice Marshall, of Pittsburg, Pa., are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Marshall.

"I was afraid I was never going to reach home again," he confided, "until I reached this city and received the kind treatment which I appreciate from the fullness of my heart."

He then told of the hardships encountered in his effort to reach his home where a wife of 81 years awaits his arrival, and who has not even dreamed of her husband's sad plight. Fifteen months ago the old gentleman left his home for Hot Springs, Arkansas, to take treatment for rheumatism which had drawn the joint of his left leg out of place, causing paralysis, and since that time his faithful wife has forwarded him money until all of their savings of a life-time had been spent and money borrowed from the neighbors. The last money forwarded to her husband was accompanied by a letter saying that it was all she could borrow, and asking him to come home. After paying his bills he started home and his money was soon expended for car fare.

"Then I had to walk," he said, and for several days I have been getting along as best I could, and when I reach home I will try and pay off the debts and then I want to die so my wife will receive the $4,000 insurance I carry and which comes due when I am gone."

He was placed on the train Saturday morning, and with his weary heart overflowing with thankfulness and with a new light in his dim eyes, bade farewell to Officer Gooderl and thanking God for the treatment accorded him by the Humane Society.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mitchener, son Willard and daughter, Judith Anne, arrived Saturday morning from Dayton to visit Mrs. Mitchener's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. N. Willson.

Mrs. Frank Christopher and daughters returned Friday night from a visit in North Lewisburg. Miss Etta Christopher, of Chicago accompanied them home to visit her brother.

Mrs. Frank E. Swingley, of Wilmington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. James H. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hodson, of Wilmington, were also Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's guests this week, returning to their home Friday evening.

THE BELLS OF THE BASTILLE.

Still in Existence in a Private House in Paris.

Comparatively few persons have ever heard of the bells of the Bastille, yet they are still in existence. After the destruction of the prison, says the Gentlewoman, they found their way to the great foundry in Romilly, but the manager of the works disobeyed the orders he received and did not destroy them.

Now they are back in Paris, in a private house in the Avenue d'Eylan. On each bell is engraved, "Made by Louis Cheron for the Royal Bastille, in the year 1761," and they are further ornamented with the royal arms and a huge cross.

Advices "Back to the Land."

There is just one way for the people of the city to find it possible to buy eggs, chickens, meat and flour for less money—that is for some of them to leave the city and go back to raising more hens, more cattle, and growing more wheat. The fact is that the country is getting top-heavy. The cities are calling too heavily on the producing areas. Farming is getting to be one of the most profitable business in the country, because the proportion of non-producers is getting so large. It is all a matter of supply and demand; just now the demand for foodstuffs is larger than it has ever been in proportion to the supply.—Denver Republican.

Boston's Costly Subway.

The costliest mile of underground railway in the world is said to be the new Washington street subway of Boston, which passes through the shopping district. Its construction and equipment has amounted to $10,000,000, or about $2,000 a lineal foot. The first section of Boston's modern system of rapid transit, consisting of subway tunnels, was opened about 14 years ago. This was followed by the erection a few years later of the elevated road. And subsequently to that the system was extended by the construction of the East Boston tunnel under the harbor. The opening of the Washington tunnel marks the latest and one of the most important extensions.

Thirty-eight Dynamiters Are Pronounced Guilty

Special to Herald.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 28.—After 40 hours of deliberation the jury found 38 of the 40 defendants in the dynamite conspiracy guilty on 52 counts.

The charges upon which the men were found guilty was conspiracy and unlawfully transporting dynamite about the country.

Daniel Buckley, of Davenport,

Ia., and Herman Seifert, of Milwaukee are the two who were found not guilty of the charge.

The trial has been in progress for weeks, and has drawn the eyes of the entire country toward Indianapolis, where the trial was in progress.

It is a great victory for William J. Burns and his associates who worked many months to bring about the arrests of the 40 men.

VULGARITY BEST SUFFRAGE HELP

Miss Mary Winsor, Speaker at Convention, Advises Delegates to be Yellow

LOUDNESS ALSO IS SUGGESTED

Mrs. Fitzgerald of Boston says Campaigners Should not be too Conscious of Personal Dignity—Mrs. Seton More Moderate.

Louisville, Ky.—Militant, even vulgar, methods were urged on delegates to the National American Woman's Suffrage Association convention here by Mary Winsor of Philadelphia.

"Whatever you do," she advised earnestly, "don't be tiresome. Better be vulgar."

When the delegates laughed she reiterated the advice, saying:

"Yes, indeed, this is a vulgar age. Be loud, be yellow, be anything to be picturesque. Better go to extremes than to bore people. It is a fool question to ask women, 'Do you want to vote?' When I want a woman to vote I ask her, 'Don't you wish we could decide whether we could have that $50,000 playground rather than the men?'"

The consensus of opinion expressed by the speakers was that the suffragists must "get the uninterested women interested in suffrage by indirect means."

"A woman listens first with her heart, then with her head," said Charity Dye of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Grace Gallatin Seton, wife of Ernest Thompson Seton of Connecticut, who followed Miss Winsor on the platform, was more moderate in suggesting ways and means, while Mrs. Susan W. Fitzgerald of Boston put herself into the militant class when she cautioned the delegates they must not be "too conscious of personal dignity" if they would succeed. Dropping suffrage literature from balloons worked well in Massachusetts, she said, and the pamphlets undoubtedly attracted more attention "than if they had come less directly from above."

"Just as soon as you have a good excuse," she urged, "get into a political campaign." Then she told how they had made this excuse by pravailing on the Democratic convention to mention "votes for women" in its platform.

"Interest the indifferent women in some reform first of all if you want to get them to vote," said Kate M. Gordon of New Orleans. "I believe when we can get the white slave problem and the child labor problem before the women we can get thousands of them interested in suffrage. An appeal through such questions is better than a quite appeal for suffrage."

NEAR DEATH PLAYING DENTIST.

Man With Pincers as Forceps Has Narrow Escape.

Pottstown, Pa.—Almost frantic with pain from an aching tooth while working at the Pottstown Brewery one morning, Sanford Shomo, an engineer, determined to play dentist himself, and yanked the molar out with a pair of pliers. But in doing it he severed an artery and was in danger of bleeding to death when he was rushed to a dentist's office.

Two dentists were routed out of bed and they, with the aid of a physician, managed to stop the flow of blood and save his life.

WILSON WELCOMED TO HIS BIRTHPLACE

Whole Community Does Honor to President-Elect.

Staunton, Va., Dec. 28.—Virginia welcomed home Governor Woodrow Wilson, the eighth of her native sons to be chosen president of the United States.

Escorted by troops of cavalry, militia companies, and a torchlight procession, in which practically the whole town participated, the governor and Mrs. Wilson motored through the streets of Staunton last night to the home of Rev. Dr. A. N. Fraser, pastor now of the Presbyterian church where the Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, father of the president-elect, lived in 1866.

"It's fine to be back again," exclaimed the president-elect, as he stepped indoors.

Last night the governor slept in the room where he was born. Today the chief program of the jubilee is being carried out. A public reception and parade are on the program.

TO ENTER CORN CONTEST

Would Have City Boys on the Farm in the Summer.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—City boys will be competitors with farmer sons in the corn-growing contests of the state department of agriculture next year if plans of B. B. McIntire of Springfield are followed by the Ohio Association for the Promotion of Agricultural Education and Rural Life, which concluded a two-day session in the High School of Commerce building here. Mr. McIntire asked the association to make plans for placing city boys, between 14 and 16 years of age, on farms during the summer. This, he said, could be accomplished through employment bureaus in the cities and through the co-operation of members of the association.

E. D. Wolfe of Tarleton was re-elected president of the association and T. W. Horton of New Madison was re-elected vice president. Other officers chosen were: John T. Johnson, Kent, secretary; H. A. Rush, Wauseon, treasurer; G. A. Bricker, Columbus, director.

Witnesses Fled.

Mays Landing, N. J., Dec. 28.—Through the flight from this jurisdiction of James Somers and Irving Parker, both of Atlantic City and important witnesses, the indictments against former councilmen Daniel S. White and Walter J. Busby, beach front hotel owners, and Dr. Edward B. Terry and Samuel J. Jeffreys, for alleged frauds in the White councilmanic fight of 1909, were nolle prossed by Supreme Court Justice Kallsch.

CATTLE PRODUCTION REPORTED LIGHT.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Fewer cattle by 281,298 head have been received at the Chicago stockyards this year than in 1911. Despite this fact, more money was paid for beef during 1912 than in 1911 by $3,282,735. The total paid out this year was $183,488,909. Three reasons are given for the increased price of beef. The western states did not raise as many cattle as usual owing to drouths. Farmers turned their pasture into wheat fields and the demand for beef increased.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST.

A gold medal contest will be held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. at the M. E. church in Staunton, on Wednesday night, January 1st, at 7 o'clock. Admission 10c and 15c.

Another Proof That This Is Winter Time

Chicago, Dec. 28.—It is not at all certain that Frank Chance, ex-leader of the Cubs, is to be manager of the New York Highlanders next season. It all depends on whether Owner Frank Farrell is willing to grant him the salary and also a share of the profits he asks. It was announced that Chance had intended to retire from baseball, but will remain in the game as manager of the Highlanders if he gets his price.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

House Jobs Reduced.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—As a result of the labors of the house committee on employees and retrenchment, when six positions in the house of representatives were abolished and recommendations were made for the abandonment of another, the state will save $35 each day that the legislature is in session, compared with the amount paid employees two years ago. On recommendation of the committee, John R. Cassidy, nominee for clerk of the new house, chose L. L. Faris of Highland county to be his first assistant, and appointed Frank E. Aid of Ross county journal clerk.

Would Have Bonds Approved.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—That all bonds issued by any political subdivision of the state shall be approved by the attorney general before they are placed on the market and that surety bonds of all state officials and employees be kept on file with the state treasurer, are recommendations made by State Treasurer D. S. Creamer in his fourth and last annual report to Governor Harmon.

Blind Boy Sees For Instant.

Canton, O., Dec. 28.—Earl White, 16, totally blind for years, knelt by the casket containing the body of his brother, Clyde, killed in a railroad accident and prayed that he might see his face. He prayed all day and all night and in the morning his sight was restored and he looked upon the face of his dead brother. Then the blindness returned.

Murderer Given Reprieve.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—Milton Smith, under sentence to be electrocuted Jan. 3 for killing a Gallia county farmer, has been reprieved by Governor Harmon until Feb. 7 to give him time to appeal to the state pardon board. This is his second reprieve. The first was for 60 days, to enable him to appeal to the circuit court.

Hogan Goes Next Week.

Columbus, O., Dec. 28.—Attorney General Hogan wrote to Common Pleas Judge William T. Devor of Ashland county that he would go to Ashland for a conference with him next Wednesday or Thursday, and will personally have charge of the grand jury investigation which is to be made into the killing of Clyde Ebert there.

Lima Chief of Police Resigns.

Lima, O., Dec. 28.—A complete shakeup in the police force here, following recent exposures of alleged graft for protection in the running of slot machines, came when Mayor Shook announced that he held the signed resignation of Chief of Police Marion Vermillion.

ACCIDENT ON DEATH BEND OF BRIDGE

CAR LEAPS FROM BRIDGE

Crew Fatally Hurt and Seven Passengers Badly Injured.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 28.—Two men were probably fatally injured and seven others suffered more or less serious injuries when a streetcar jumped the track on the Central bridge which spans the Ohio river here and were hurled into a vacant lot on the Ohio side after a drop of 40 feet.

Both the motorman of the car, John Rashford of Covington and Conductor Orley Clemmons of Newport, received injuries that are expected to prove fatal. The remainder of the injured were passengers on the car.

The car, which was city-bound from Newport, after leaving the tracks smashed through a guard rail and turned a complete somersault before striking the ground. It was crushed to pieces.

Nicaraguan Is Released From Prison By the U. S.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Orders have been issued from Washington for the release of General Luis Mena, who has been confined in the United States hospital at Ancon, Panama canal zone, since last September, when he surrendered as leader of the revolution in Nicaragua and accepted safe escort out of that country on a United States warship. It is expected that General Mena will go to Costa Rica, where he owns a farm and has many friends.

RUINS OF CHURCH FALL

Immense Quantity of Bones of Corpses Scattered Over Debris.

Messina, Dec. 28.—The walls of the Church of San Michael, which was destroyed in the great earthquake of 1908, collapsed. An immense quantity of the bones of the corpses which had been buried there for many generations were scattered over the debris and gave it the appearance of being covered by snow. The firemen pulled down the remaining walls, collected the bones and carried them to a cemetery.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 28.—George Burns, 38, of Pittsburg, and Malvin J. Gallagher, 32, of Toledo, laborers employed on a contracting job west of the city, were held up by five highwaymen, beaten unconscious and left lying in the snow. They were found almost dead.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25 OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How

If you have ideas . . if you can THINK . . we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, BISSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure.

His Fishing Trip

"Hen Merriam never would say just what the black bass weighed," said a man from Monroe county, "and I guess Mark Sullivan didn't know, but the hammer weighed five pounds."

"It was a Sodus bay bass, and when Hen talked about wanting to go out and get it or one something like its size some one told him the bass ran so large in Sodus that fishermen who wanted to be on the safe side took a big hammer along with them to knock 'em in the head. So the hammer Hen Merriam took with him weighed almost as much as the cedar boat he rowed."

"Hen, being a railroad conductor, seemed to expect the bass to be right on schedule time in taking his hook after he had thrown in, and so when 15 minutes had passed and no bass had come along he decided it was so far behind time that he guessed it would have to be abandoned, and he was pulling up to go in when the bass came along and got the hook."

"Hen started right in to make up lost time and yanked that bass in hand over hand. When the fish's head came in sight and within reach Hen grabbed his hammer, and being a little mad yet over the bass being behind time he brought the hammer down like he was a blacksmith's helper well on to his job."

"But Sodus bay bass are watchful and sly, and this one ducked and got out of the way of the hammer. The hammer kept right on coming down, though, and it had to hit something, and so it whanged into the side of the light cedar boat."

"It passed right on through the side of the boat, making a hole big enough to shove a stovepipe in. The hole being below the water line of course the water poured into the boat like a torrent, and Hen began to yell."

"'Hay!' he yelled. 'Somebody better make an extra good time over here or there'll be trouble on this line!'"

"And that was no joke, for Hen had hardly yelled that much when his boat sank and he was floundering in the water trying to keep from following it. He had the hammer in one hand and held fast to his line with the other. Mark Sullivan was taking out bass in a boat near by, and he pulled for Hen right away."

"'Don't stop for signals!' yelled Hen. 'Pull her wide open, or this bass will get away!'"

"Mark got there just in time to tug Hen into his boat, and Hen was no sooner in than he began hauling away on his bass, which was still on the hook. When he got it alongside the boat he handed the hammer to Mark, and while Hen held the bass with the top of his head out of the water Mark used the sledge on it."

"He tumbled the bass' skull in at the first clip. They lifted the fish into the boat and came ashore. Nobody has ever heard how much it weighed, for Hen Merriam didn't say and I guess Mark Sullivan never knew. When Hen told about the bass he just said it was so big it sank the boat."

"'But if I find the man who told me to take that hammer along as part of my fishing tackle,' said he, 'he'll know how much I weigh!'"

"Some say the boat cost Hen $40."

A Sign of Trouble.

The group of men round the post-office stove had been exchanging confidences, brought out by the remark of Abel Willet. "I hate to hear the wind whining the way it does to-night," he said, drawing closer to the stove. "Sounds kind of unearthly."

"Screech-owls are the only critters that can make me feel uneasy," said Old Hamlin. "There was a family of 'em in a hollow apple-tree back of my house one year. I snum, I used to dread the moonlight nights when they tuned up!"

"Whippoorwills are plenty solemn for me," said Hiram Goodyear. "Let 'em keep it up for an hour or so across our valley, and I get chilled clear through."

"There's nothing I hate to hear so bad as a dog howling," said William Hobbs. "When that bound o' the Greens' gets at it good an' steady, I come near wishing that I was stone-deaf."

"Ain't there any sound that kind o' turns your blood cold, Pete?" inquired Abel Willet of Peter Hanson, a small, meek-faced man who was blessed with an Amazonian wife and ten children, and whose many home duties made at evening at the post-office a rare outing.

"Yes, there is," and Mr. Hanson looked apprehensive as he spoke. "The sound of a cough with a kind of a whoop to it, that's what means a bad time ahead for me, I can tell you! There's four of 'em haven't had it yet!"

NOVEL CALENDAR.

Strips Over Each Date Are Detached Daily, Indicating Current Date.

A custom common with probably everybody in using calendars is to cross out with a pen or pencil each date of the month as it goes. There is then small chance of mistaking the date. A Philadelphia man suggests a much better and neater method of checking off the dates in a calendar he has patented, an illustration of which is shown here. In this calendar there is a series of transverse paper strips extending to the center of each row of figures. The dates are printed ed partly upon the sheet and partly upon the strips, the latter being secured to the sheets only between the dates and detachable under the figures. When the strip is removed the top and bottom portions of the date still remain visible. Each day the strip covering the corresponding date is removed. The user is thus able to tell at a glance the date of the month. Also, if he desires to refer to the dates of days already passed, he can readily determine them from the partly broken figures.

TO SHOW PHOTOGRAPHS

Album Is Equipped with Magnifying Glass and Mirror.

A compact and interesting device for home entertainment has been invented by a New York man. It consists of a photograph holder, which is at the same time an exhibitor, the whole being designed in the form of an album. The album is set on a stand, back down, and is divided into three compartments, the two side compartments for holding photographs and an electric battery, and the center division having a mirror set in the back and a lens in the front, with space between for inserting the views. This inner section is movable and can be adjusted to any position desired, the magnifying glass in the front enlarging the views and bringing out all the detail. An electric light, supplied from the battery in the storage compartment, illumines the exhibition chamber and enhances the general effect of the picture. For evenings at home this device can be made both instructive and entertaining with a collection of historic views

Squab Courtship.

The squab farm is an interesting place. Belgian homers are the best breeders. The parents birds are the pick of all the flocks. They pair young. The male selects his partner, and his wooing is not easy. At first he is pecked at angrily. He is a persistent fellow though, and will not be repulsed. The object of his attention tries to escape by flight. He pursues relentlessly; when she flies he flies after her; when she runs he runs after her, when she roosts he roosts beside her. This keeps up on the average for two days, then Miss Pigeon relents, evidently deciding it would be hard hearted to deny so ardent a lover. The couple then settle down to a staid married life. They average five pairs of squabs a year. Eggs are hatched in eighteen days, and four weeks later the squabs go to market. They grow like weeds, at the end of the four weeks being fully feathered pigeons.

"'You are pushing me too hard,'" said Wu Ting Fang to a reporter in San Francisco who was interviewing him. "'You are taking advantage of me. You are like the Pekin poor relation:'"

"One day he met the head of his family in the street."

"'Come and dine with us to-night,' the mandarin said. 'raciously.'"

"'Thank you,' said the poor relation. 'but wouldn't to-morrow night do just as well?'"

"'Yes, certainly. But where are you dining to-night?' asked the mandarin curiously."

"'At your house. You see, your estimable wife was good enough to give me to-night's invitation.'"

His boxing has placed him in the limelight.

Brave Army Given Lift But Lost Headway

SUFFRAGETS SPILLED

General Jones' Army Takes a Disastrous Automobile Ride.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 28. — The suffraget army, headed by General Rosalie Jones, was close to annihilation when an automobile which had been pressed into service to carry the suffragets to a meeting in a farmhouse skidded and ran down an embankment, throwing the occupants into the mud and slush. The accident occurred just north of Valatie, where the suffragets spent the night after a hard drilling through sleet and mud. All the party, including General Jones, were hurled bodily into the mud. None was injured except General Jones, who complained of a slightly bruised arm.

OLEY SPEAKS SONG RECITAL.

Say a good word for The Herald.

Getting Busy On Old Oil Well

Several carloads of boilers, engines and other drilling machinery arrived at Harpers Station Tuesday and are being unloaded preparatory to again drilling for oil in the vicinity of the well that was drilled there last year and which did not produce enough oil or gas to make it a practical or prolific proposition.

Experts in the oil business have unbounded confidence in the prospects for oil in the near vicinity to Greenfield, and it is understood that the drilling now to be undertaken will go several hundred feet deeper than the well previously drilled on the Wilbur Harper farm. The outcome of the present enterprise is of unestimable importance to Greenfield, and the potted ones are having unbounded confidence of the success of the undertaking.—Greenfield Republican.

SONG RECITAL.

The Cecilians have been most fortunate in securing Mr. Oley Speaks for a song recital Monday evening, Dec. 30th, at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Speaks is a singer and Composer of note and is one of the few American composers who not only writes and sings but plays his own compositions. He will present a most interesting and varied program with a group of his own songs.

He possesses a smooth bass voice of splendid quality and great range.

COST OF AN EDUCATION.

Public Schools of the Country Spend an Average of $28.25 a Pupil.

The average yearly expenditure a pupil in the public schools of this country, is given as $28.25 in the recently published report of the Commissioner of Education. In 1870 it was only $15.55.

Nevada has the highest yearly expenditure, $72.15 a pupil, followed by New York with $51.50, Montana with $49.40 and California with $49.29. In the South the expenditures a pupil range from $6.37 for South Carolina to $20.36 for West Virginia. The new State of Oklahoma spends $15.79. New Mexico $19.46, while Arizona with $40.41 spends $5.16 a pupil a year more than Oklahoma and New Mexico combined.

One-third of the States spend from $25 to $40 a pupil. The fact that one-fourth spend less than $15 and one-fourth spend more than $35 is an indication, says the Commissioner, "of the great variety in support of public education, and, I believe, in the opportunity afforded for school training in our various Commonwealths."

STRIPED HORSES OF MEXICO.

Search Begun for the Famed Wild Stud of the Sierra Madre.

A search for the famed wild stud of striped horses in Mexico may be a patient venture after something new, but probably not more so than the present venture at breeding a new type of horses in Colorado under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture, to be known as the "American Horse," not literally with the American flag stamped in his forehead, but all the same a purely American horse. The venture after the striped horse is related as follows by the news from Mexico, which says that Prof. H. Cassar Ewart, a noted educator and naturalist of Edinburgh, Scotland, has arrived here on his way to a remote and unexplored region of the Sierra Madre, in the extreme southwest part of the state. He is accompanied by several other scientists, and the object of their expedition is to investigate the oft heard report that there is a large drove of wild horses of most peculiar appearance in that part of Mexico. These animals are said to be striped and bear a close resemblance to the zebra. They are said to make their home in a rich valley which is almost completely shut in by the towering cliffs of the mountains.

It is the theory of Professor Ewart that all horses were at one time striped and their present coloring and absence of stripes are due to intermixing the breed. He has been studying the question for several years and recently finished an exhaustive research into the prehistoric remains of horses on the island of Porto Rico and Jamaica.

The account of the existence of a large drove of striped horses in the Sierra Madre seems to be authentic. Long before white men had penetrated the almost inaccessible region Indians who lived in the mountains told of having seen this drove of horses. About fifty years ago an American mining prospector named Hampton Bradley, who formerly lived at Parrel, where he owned and operated the Marco mine, made a trip into the mountains. He was gone for about three months, and upon his return he told of having visited the valley where he saw this drove of horses. He said there were several thousand of the animals and that their feeding ground embraced many thousand acres of rich, level land, with a small stream of water, running through it.

Would "Ban Wan Fool."

Not Irish, but delightful, is the story of the automobilist who, in making a cross-country tour in Dakota, had the misfortune to have his machine break down. He saw a small house not far off and cut across to it. The only man about the place was a Swede, who was much amused by the sight of the strange rig the automobilist wore. "My friend," said the automobilist, "my machine has had a bad break and I would like to know if I can't get a monkey-wrench. Swede looked at him with greater curiosity than he then laughed. He had heard of strange folks and heard of things since he had come to America, but this was the worst! "Monkey-wrench?" he asked, sarcastically. "I got sheep ranch and my cousin Ole he got cow ranch, and Meester Ferguson he ban have wan pig ranch, but I rank annywan start monkey ranch in Nord Dakota ban wan fool!"

UNIVERSITY ON A NOVEL PLAN.

The Methodists Are Slowly Building It at Washington.

The American University at Washington, D. C., is beginning the erection of buildings to cost $2,000,000. The Methodists hope to crown their educational system with this post-graduate institution.

In two respects the American University will be unique, says the Educational Review, in that it will be the only educational institution in the United States which will confine its instruction to post-graduate studies and will not have any undergraduate schools attached to its scheme of education, and that the university will not enroll any students until every building is erected and the total assets, property and endowment amount to at least $10,000,000. The buildings now being constructed are for the law department, the colleges of medicine, technology, art and a great museum.

Ready to Fight.

The big man with the fiery look on his face had been struggling with the car window for 20 minutes. Suddenly it came down on him and held him a prisoner. With much fuming and wriggling he finally released himself. "Confound that blasted window!" he thundered, almost exploding with rage. "I feel like I could chew it up in bits, glass and all."

It was then that the humorous little man in the next seat touched him on the arm.

"My friend," he said, with a merry twinkle in his eyes, "don't be so angry with the window. Why, that window likes you. In fact, it is really affectionate."

"What! Are you joshing me? The window affectionate?"

"Certainly, sir. Didn't it fall on your neck?"

And then the humorous little man vanished toward the smoker.

Rome and Carthage.

In answer to the question as to how long it took a trireme to cover the distance between Rome and Carthage, it is only necessary to refer to the remarkable incident related by Plutarch in his life of Cato. The old Roman Senator, wishing to impress his brother Senators with the necessity of destroying Carthage, unfolded his toga and showed the astonished assembly a batch of fresh figs which had been gathered on the African coast less than two days before.

South Solon Terror Fires Three Bullets Into Body of His Wife

Orville Powell, Former Resident of Near Jeffersonville, Commits Murderous Deed.

PAIR HAD SEPARATED AND POWELL WAS INTOXICATED

Victim Lies at Point of Death With Two Bullets in Neck and One in Shoulder—Was Found in Bed, Covered With Blood. Two Small Children in Room at Time of Shooting.

Orville Powell, aged 25 years, son of Robert Powell and a former resident of near Jeffersonville, is in the Madison county jail as a result of shooting his wife in cold blood at their home in South Solon about 8:30 Friday night. The woman is expected to die.

Powell had been in Springfield and came home on the D. T. & I. evening train Friday, having become very much intoxicated while in Springfield.

Arriving in South Solon he went to the home of his wife, kicked in the door, fired three shots from a .38 caliber revolver, all of the deadly balls taking effect in the woman's body.

The defenseless woman lay in bed at the time, and her two small children were in the same room. The drink crazed and infuriated husband walked over to the woman's bedside and with a curse pulled the revolver and commenced firing, two of the balls striking Mrs. Powell in the neck and one striking the shoulder and ranging downward. Both balls in the neck narrowly missed the jugular vein.

Believing he had killed his wife, Powell fled in the darkness, and the entire village was quickly aroused and a search for the man commenced. The police of neighboring towns were notified, but Powell later returned to the home of his father and surrendered himself to Henry Linson, former marshal of the village.

At a late hour in the night he was taken in a buggy to the Madison county jail at London, and lodged there to await results. A murder charge will be lodged against him if his wife dies.

Dr. Fred L. Wilson, of South Solon is attending the victim of the murderous assault.

Mrs. Powell is the daughter of Ollie Porter, a blacksmith of South Solon, and she has lived there all her life. About three years ago she married Orville Powell, but it is said their married life had not been a happy one. About three months ago they separated, she remaining at home while he went to work on the farm of William Donahue, north of the village.

For some time, according to the neighbors, he had not been to the house but returned after having spent the day in Springfield. Hearing the shooting some of the neighbors rushed to the cottage to find the woman shot, and lying in a pool of blood upon the bed. She told them that her husband had done the shooting and then lapsed into unconsciousness.

According to Marshal Corbett, Powell has been in trouble several times before, once having been arrested on a charge of stealing chickens. It is alleged that he would not work and on this account his wife did not want to live with him. Powell has relatives living near Jeffersonville.

NEW KINK FOR SKATERS.

Fifth Roller Aids Them in Stopping and in Fancy Figures.

The fifth wheel to a wagon has long been sited as typical of usefulness, but the fifth wheel to a roller skate, as arranged by a Pennsylvania man, has several uses. This fifth roller is fastened below the front portion of the skate body and is on an axis that is parallel to the latter. It revolves about this axis in a direction transverse to that taken by the supporting Skate Attached with Extra Wheel. rollers, and under normal conditions is held above the floor level.

By means of this extra roller a skater can stop quickly by bending one foot forward in such a manner as to act as a brake, the fifth roller rotating and saving him from a stop so sudden as to unsettle his equilibrium. At the same time it saves the floor. Fancy skaters will find this device a great advantage, as it will enable them to pirouette about on their toes and cut all sorts of elaborate figures which they dared not attempt before. The extra wheel should also make it easier for beginners to learn how to use roller skates.—Washington Star.

Bravest of Living Things.

The mongoose is very brave, but the most courageous of all living things is, by common consent of naturalists, the mole. Seemingly without any sense of fear whatever, the mole will fight anything that crosses its path. It never raises the white flag. Neither giving nor asking quarter, it tears away at its adversary until it kills it or is killed itself. The mole appetite is in keeping with its courage, and it thinks nothing of eating its own weight. In appetite the spider is a close second to the mole, but when it comes to fighting the mole carries the palm.

Annual Wall Game Played At Eton—They're After the Ball

THIS illustrates an exciting moment in the annual wall game, which was the chief event in the recent St. Andrew's day celebration at Eton. To one who does not understand the game it looks as though the players were here engaged in the pleasant pastime of trying to buck their way through the stone wall. They're not. It's merely a jolly, hard scramble after the ball, which is bounced against the wall for points something like our handball. This game was between the collegers and oppidians, and the chaps on the top of the wall formed part of the crowd who looked on. The game resulted in a win for the colleges of nine shies to nil.

GILA MONSTERS INCREASING.

Whether Bite of this Lizard is Fatally Poisonous to Man Unsettled.

"Naturalists who recently visited the Mojave desert in Arizona say that there has been an increase in the number of gila monsters in that region," said Dr. A. B. Cedron of Prescott, Ariz.

"These lizards are of great interest to naturalists, for in spite of investigations authorities still differ as to whether the bite of a gila monster is fatally poisonous. I have had several instances come under my observation where men have been bitten by gila monsters, but none ever died. In the case of a gila monster biting a guinea pig, however, the poison was fatal a few minutes after the guinea pig had been bitten. The natives of the Southwest, particularly the Indians of Mexico, sincerely believe that the bite of a gila is fatal to a human being and the lizard is held in much awe by them.

"It is likely, however, that this fear is occasioned largely by the repulsive appearance of the reptile. The head is very prominent, comprising about one-fifth of the total length of the body and like the back it is thickly covered with yellow and black tinted tubercles. Its skin is very tough, and although the bones of the tail are fragile this part of the reptile is very strong, it being possible for the monster to raise itself and balance the body on the tip of the tail, thus enabling it to climb rocks and steep ascents. There is no doubt that the teeth lead to glands containing poison. It is very slow in its movements, but it is not timid like other reptiles. If one attempts to strike the gila with a stick it will grasp the weapon in its jaws like a dog does, and when angered it emits its breath in a succession of quick gasps. It is supposed that the breath of the gila has a drug-like effect on insects, and as it can be detected at a considerable distance it is believed that this is the way it catches its food."

A Case of Too Much Children.

In a volume of reminiscences a very funny story is told of the late Bishop Bloomfield, who, having a family by his first wife, married a second time. This Mrs. Bloomfield was a widow with a brood of her own, and in due course a third family arrived on the scene. One day the bishop was disturbed by his wife running into his study in a great state of excitement. "What is it, dear?" he testily inquired. "Oh, bishop!" was her agonized reply. "Quick, quick! There's not a moment to lose! Your children are sliding with my children and are murdering our children!"

Lazy Samboans.

An Austrian naturalist, Dr. Rechner, attempted some time ago to make a collection of Simoan fishes. He found it almost impossible to persuade the natives, who are so lazy that they seldom go fishing, to sell him any. An offer of gold tempted them no more than silver; they had caught their fish to eat them, and eat them they did.

Interesting Information.

Darwin's "Theories on Evolution" were first made public in 1858. A. R. Wallace brought out the same ideas in the same year. The term Uncle Sam was first used during the war of 1812 and soon after that the figure of the typical Yankee appeared in the cartoons.
